Squash4Girls

Squash Wales have secured funding for a National #Squash4Girls programme.

The aim is to offer increased opportunities for women & girls to regularly participate in Squash throughout Wales.

The National Governing Body for Squash in Wales

Squash Wales hope to increase the number of women & girls completing coach education courses, as well as offering more coaching sessions for women & girls to attend.

Part of the programme will also involve running a #Squash4Girls roadshow, which will comprise of several exhibition matches taking place at different squash clubs throughout Wales, featuring role model and recent British Champion Tesni Evans!

Squash Wales are excited and very much looking forward to getting this programme underway in the coming months.

If you have any potential coaches willing to take part in this exciting programme –its fully funded –please contact sarah.clode@squash.wales tel :07827876600
