Following the completion of a million pound redevelopment programme, providing four state of the art glass backed squash courts, Coolhurst Tennis and Squash Club in Crouch End, North London, will host the Allam British Open Masters Championship.

The British Open Masters, 12 – 16 May 2012, is an open competition divided into nine age categories spanning over 35s to Men's over 75s and is expected to draw a strong entry from clubs nationwide and across Europe. Masters squash is flourishing in England with a fantastic masters circuit that provides regular top class competition for all age group players. The British Open Masters is the premier masters event on the yearly world calendar and will provide a great end of season festival for all involved.

Entry fee is £30.00, you may only enter one age category.

Entries close on Friday 27 April, late entries will NOT be accepted.

Accommodation details will be added shortly.
